

Critical acclaim for

Isabel Dumaa

New single "Always Leaving You" out now
"Quarter Life Crisis" has reached a million streams

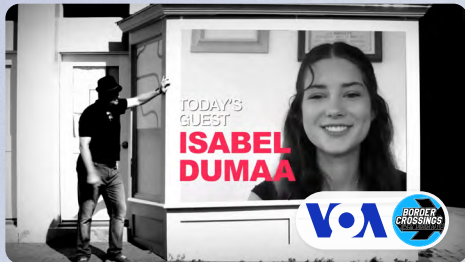

WATCH "QUARTER LIFE CRISIS" ACOUSTIC HERE

"'Always Leaving You' is brisk and energetic, propelled by Dumaa's crystalline vocals and bright drumming patterns. It's thoughtful and sincere, a refreshingly diaristic take on the pitfalls of young love."

Paste
READ INTERVIEW HERE

"It takes a lot to stick out in the singer-songwriter space and not get boxed in, but Dumaa cuts through the noise with her thoughtful storytelling, distinct vocal tone, and tasteful production choices."

WATCH BORDER CROSSINGS INTERVIEW HERE

"everything about this California-based 19-year-old has that same classic sound and sonic momentum, especially for an artist who has now three singles out, the vibes are as strong as an offshore Catalina breeze"

With a little guitar strumming and Dumaa's gentle voice to start us off, 'Quarter Life Crisis' moves into a clear rhythm perfect for a long drive on a summer road trip. Dumaa's vocals deftly complement the beat and encourage us to sing along."

SAINT AUDIO

WATCH "QUARTER LIFE CRISIS" HERE

"As an up-and-coming singer-songwriter, Isabel has already built a loyal fanbase who appreciates not just her enchanting voice but also the relatable narratives we've grown to love in her music."

THE HONEY POP

"Along with a distinctive indie-pop voice and style, Dumaa is solidifying herself as a voice for young audiences who are still figuring out who they are."

GLASSE FACTORY

LISTEN TO THE PLAYLIST HERE

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT KATE RAKVIC, KENDALL ABELMAN OR CARLA SACKS AT SACKS & CO., 212.741.1000, KATE.RAKVIC@SACKSCO.COM, KENDALL ABELMAN@SACKSCO.COM OR CARLA@SACKSCO.COM